

CITY OF LOS ANGELES Centenarian Program

Do you have a friend or family member celebrating their birthday of 100 years or older?

The City of Los Angeles would like to honor your loved one's wealth of experience and longevity through its Centenarian Program, administered by the Los Angeles Department of Aging (LADOA).

After filling out the enclosed application, the Centenarian will receive a venerable certificate from the City through their local Councilmember or LADOA.

Participants or their loved ones must submit their application no less than two months prior to the Centenarian's birthday and the honoree must be a resident of the City of Los Angeles.

For more information, please call LADOA at (213) 252-4000.
